1. DOPE SICK

by Walter Dean Myers
 Narrated by JD Jackson

Best-selling author Walter Dean Myers has received two Newbery Honors and was the first ever recipient of the Michael L. Printz Award. At a young age, Lil J. Skin started stealing pain pills from his mom whenever he started to feel stressed—but now he's graduated to the big leagues. After Lil J. partners with a pusher named Rico on a sweet deal, events take a shocking turn when the buyer—an undercover police officer—is shot and Lil J. winds up wounded and hiding in a crack house.

3. THE SUMMONING

by Kelley Armstrong
 Narrated by Cassandra Morris

Kelley Armstrong, the author of many New York Times best-selling paranormal thrillers, bursts onto the YA scene with The Summoning. Chloe isn't so different from most other 15-year-old girls—except lately she's been seeing dead people lurking about (darting across the street, hiding in basements, staring at her). It isn't long before she's placed in a group home for troubled teens. But that may not be the place is really for at all, because Chloe isn't the only resident possessing a strange "gift."

5. EVERY SOUL A STAR

by Wendy Mass
 Performed by various narrators

Winner of the ALA Schneider Family Award, Wendy Mass has had her fiction for young readers honored with a Junior Library Guild Selection and a Book Sense Children's Pick. Every Soul a Star is the tale of an extraordinary occurrence related through three very different perspectives. Unlike the thousands converging at Moon Shadow to witness a total solar eclipse, Ally calls the isolated campground home. Bree shields herself in a cloak of good looks and popularity, but there is something within her no one suspects. And Jack, overweight and socially inept, finds himself on the verge of startling possibility.
