

COP 6

Q1275
 Price: $60.00
COP Price $48.00

The Magic Thief

1. LOST

by Sarah Prineas
 Narrated by Greg Steinbruner

The second book in this highly acclaimed series, Lost continues the adventures of Conn, a young and intrepid street urchin turned wizard. Conn's quest to return the flow of magic to the city of Wellmet has become urgent—his locus stone is missing, and bands of ruthless Shadows roam the streets. Now he'll travel to the desert city of Desh to face the mysterious sorcerer king.

Q1321
 Price: $47.00
COP Price $37.60

2. GHOSTGIRL

by Tonya Hurley
 Narrated by Parker Posey

With an instrumental role in two hit TV series, writing and directing gigs in independent films, and creative control of video games and award-winning Web sites, Tonya Hurley is a whirling dervish of artistic output. Ghostgirl features Charlotte Usher, a high schooler who can't help but feel no one knows she's alive. Then her nagging fear is confirmed. One day she no longer just feels invisible—she is, in fact, dead and literally haunting the halls.

Q1322
 Price: $70.00
COP Price $56.00

3. REALITY CHECK

by Peter Abrahams
 Narrated by James Colby

Peter Abrahams is an Edgar Award nominee and the New York Times best-selling author of the Echo Falls series. Here he cranks up the suspense in the tale of a high school football star searching for his lost love. Life is perfect for Cody until he tears his ACL and his girlfriend Clea is sent to a ritzy boarding school in Vermont. Then, Cody's world comes crashing down when Clea vanishes, and the only clues are found in a letter she sent Cody the morning she disappeared.

"My favorite American suspense novelist."
 —Stephen King

Q1323
 Price: $60.00
COP Price $48.00

4. THE SUMMER I TURNED PRETTY

by Jenny Han
 Narrated by Jessica Almay

This bittersweet novel by Jenny Han recounts the summer of Belly's 16th birthday. When she and her family arrive at the beach house that June, her longtime summer pal Jeremiah appears standoffish and awkward in her presence. And his older brother Conrad—her secret crush—seems distant and cold. But her blossoming beauty isn't the only reason for their change in behavior. For as Belly enjoys the sun and surf, she'll ultimately learn the painful secret that dampens the spirit of her childhood friends.

"Romantic and heartbreakingly real ... beautifully written."—Library Journal

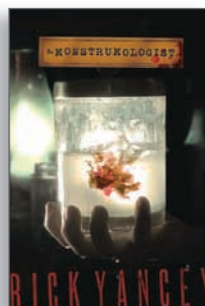

Q1324
 Price: $60.00
COP Price $48.00

The Last Apprentice

5. CLASH OF THE DEMONS

by Joseph Delaney
 Narrated by Christopher Evan Welch

Eagerly devoured by fans, Joseph Delaney's Last Apprentice books combine fantasy, horror, and adventure for a rousing audio experience. They have also made their way onto the New York Times best-seller lists. In their sixth outing, Thomas Ward and his mentor the Spook face dreadful peril at the hands of the demonic underlord, the Fiend.

Q1325
 Price: $98.00
COP Price $78.40

6. THE MONSTRUMOLOGIST

by Rick Yancey
 Narrated by Steven Boyer

Award-winning author Rick Yancey has captivated young adult readers with his popular Alfred Kropp novels, the first of which was named a Best Book for Children by Publishers Weekly and was a finalist for the Carnegie Medal. Now Yancey begins a gripping new series with The Monstrumologist. Dr. Warthrop is a scientist who tracks and studies real-life monsters. Assisted by his 12-year-old apprentice Will Henry, Dr. Warthrop discovers a pod of Anthropophagi and launches a hunt to destroy the foul beasts.

COP 12

Q1326
 Price: $88.00
COP Price $70.40

7. STRANGE ANGELS

by Lili St. Crow
 Narrated by Alyssa Bresnahan
 Lili St. Crow won accolades and an impressive readership for her Dante Valentine series. With Strange Angels, St. Crow pens a YA tale sure to raise hackles and wake the dead. Dru Anderson is a very special girl—even if she doesn't always feel it. Gifted with "the touch," Dru travels about with her dad, hunting all manner of things that go bump in the night. But then her dad turns up dead—or, er, undead—and everything changes.
"The book grabs readers by the throat, sets hearts beating loudly and never lets go."
 —Kirkus Reviews

Q1328
 Price: $14.00
COP Price $11.20

Nancy Drew and the Clue Crew
9. PONY PROBLEMS

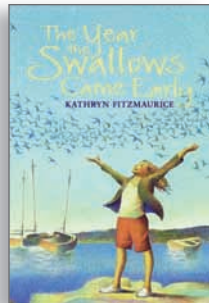

by Carolyn Keene
 Narrated by Cassandra Morris
 This third entry from the much-loved Nancy Drew and the Clue Crew series finds the clever detective and her friends investigating a Houdini of a pony. When a new petting zoo opens in town, Buttons becomes the star by escaping every night and showing up on someone else's lawn to eat the flowers. Nancy quickly jumps on the case—because even though she'd love to see Buttons on her lawn one morning, it's more important to keep him safe at the zoo.

Q1330
 Price: $47.00
COP Price $37.60

11. ZOOBREAK

by Gordon Korman
 Narrated by Jonathan Todd Ross
 Award-winning author Gordon Korman has sold millions of copies of his books worldwide and has captivated young readers everywhere with his distinct brand of laugh-out-loud humor. Zoobreak revisits the characters from Korman's popular Swindle, as Griffin Bing and his friends come together for another heist. Savannah's pet monkey has been kidnapped and given to a zoo! Griffin quickly puts together a plan to steal the critter back, but not all goes smoothly. The crew realizes animals in the zoo are treated badly, so they hatch another scheme—to smuggle the animals into a better zoo.

Q1327
 Price: $47.00
COP Price $37.60

8. THE YEAR THE SWALLOWS CAME EARLY

by Kathryn Fitzmaurice
 Narrated by Cassandra Morris
 Debut novelist Kathryn Fitzmaurice delivers a critically acclaimed tale of family bonds that School Library Journal says "encourages understanding, tolerance, and forgiveness." Nine-year-old Eleanor "Groovy" Robinson dreams of one day attending culinary school and becoming a great chef. But then her father—a compulsive gambler—nearly destroys Groovy's future. Heartbroken, Groovy slowly begins to understand the importance of reconciliation.

Q1205
 Price: $60.00
COP Price $48.00

10. SOUL EATER
Chronicles of Ancient Darkness

by Michelle Paver
 Narrated by Ian McKellen
 The internationally best-selling Chronicles of Ancient Darkness novels by Michelle Paver thrill audiences with their gripping storylines fusing supernatural myth with keenly researched Stone Age anthropology. In the Far North, only the strongest, most brutal, and cunning can survive. And it is there that brave Torak and his companion Renn must journey to free Torak's pack-brother Wolf, who has been abducted by a mysterious enemy.

Q1331
 Price: $79.00
COP Price $63.20

12. THE QUEEN OF ATTOLIA

by Megan Whalen Turner
 Narrated by Jeff Woodman
 A Newbery Honor winner for her book The Thief, Megan Whalen Turner crafts mesmerizing tales of royals, scoundrels and villains. By order of the cold-hearted Queen of Attolia, thief Eugenides "Gen" has his hand chopped off while being detained inside a dank torture chamber. Afterward, mischievous Gen retains his sense of adventure, but is haunted by the loss of his hand. And when war breaks out between three neighboring countries, Gen must use his wits and smarts to survive.
"... devilishly well plotted and grandly conceived."—Publishers Weekly